SEASON NOW AT ITS HEIGHT

WINTER MEETING AT CHARLESTON GOING ALONG IN SATISFACTORY FASHION.

Management of Track Now Reaping Reward of Sagacious Policy-Gossip of Approaching Derby and Other Interesting Matters.

Charleston, January 25.—Spirited contests, heavy speculation and liberal pationage now marks the winter meeting of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association. The upbuilding of the sport here has been attended by some setbacks, due to false reports sent out during the early days of the meeting by some of the unemployed persons gathered here. The free gate, or rather the practice of liberally distributing badges, which was in vogue here last winter was abolished this season by those in charge and it took some time for the local followers of the sport to make up their minds that they had to pay to witness the racing. The result was a falling off in attendance during the first few weeks, but now that the meeting has settled down, one hears little complaint of the absence of complimentary badges. The sport has been maintained on a high plane and the association is now reaping the reward that it so ricilly deserves.

During the past week a turn came in favor of the layers and they are reconjuing some of the heavy losses they sustained during the first forty days. This has certainly been a good meeting for the handicappers. They have outgeneraled the layers and it looks as if their judgment in the matter of prices has been far superior to that of the price quoters. The track is in fairly good condition, but the going is still far from being fast. Contrary to expectations, the track was not scraped from the inside as many were led to believe it would be. Instead about 200 loads of four were spread on the far turn, correcting the grade which sloped to the outside instead of to the inside. This was responsible for so many horses running out at this point. There is still some work to be done on this portion. Fewer horses were on the track this morning at Palmetro Park than at any time since the meeting opered, as a result of the unusually heavy going, which turned sticky under several hours of hot sun and a stiff wind. Barring further rain the course should be in better shape than ever by Tuesday at the lattest, as the r

The horse started yesterday and it was thought that he came out of his race in good shape. He had just reached his best form, having won a race during the past week and his sickness is a severe blow to the Marion stable.

Arrivals continue to come from the north right along, each day seeing new faces at the track, most of which are familiar at the courses in the east. Canada and Kentucky. The patronage on Robert E. Lee day was by far the best of the most interest of the chief topic of convention and the track during the past few days.

The chief topic of convention hourt the track during the past few days been the indefinite susponsion inflicted on jockey Boel for his handling of Onkland in a race the life of the indefinite susponsion inflicted on jockey Boel for his handling of Onkland in a race that the local meeting in proportion to the number of mounts he has had and his suspension was a hard blow to his contract camployer, W. G. Yanke. Oakhand has noter been highly thought of either ny Yanke for the cheaper grade of selling platers and guide furlougs.

He has always run in race for the cheaper grade of selling platers and sell furlougs.

He has always run in race for the cheaper grade of selling platers and sell furlougs.

He should be shoul tule no odds-on choice in any race he might have been started in, so it was decided to run him here.

J. L. Holland has a big band of youngsters here, several of which are said to be above the average. There are brothers and sisters to winners, but there appears to be no disposition to hurry them along and probably they are being reserved for racing over the New York tracks. The three-year-olds Gordon and Garl have been turned out in paddocks location will probably be taken up shore and grown quite a bit since hut they have developed and grown quite a bit since hut they have developed and grown quite a bit since a long they were hars also been allowed to run out along the salest movements to sign up promising riders, a big castern owners to sign up promising riders, a big castern owners to sign up promising riders, a big large the owners to sign up promising riders, a big large the coming summer. There have been a great jugany offers for different lads here and W. M. Latter, trainer for Thomas Fortune Ryan, appears to be an ellowed to run out as the sale of the lot in beronde, whose contract he purposed and the provided what looks like the most promising riders, and the lot in beronde, whose contract he purposed and the lot in beronde, whose contract he purposed and the lot in beronde, whose contract he purposed and the set of the lot in beronde with the provided what looks like the most promising riders. THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1913

Of the thirteen horses which won $10,000 or more in American racing of 1913, seven were three-year-olds and six of the seven were excellent race horses. The exception was the filly Pandorina, which at her best was but a plodder that was lucky in winning a rich stake race because best trained for long-distance racing. Besides the six named, Ten Point, Gowell, Hearts of Oak, Buskin, Cock o' the Walk and Rock View were some others that did not win-so much money, but raced so well as to deserve inclusion in the select list of the best of their age. Such were Horron, Flying Fairy, Montresor, Great Britain, Leochares and, perhaps, Donerail, Flabbergast, Kleburne and Monocacy. Some others, for instance, Pan Zareta, Thesera Gill and Tarts, showed great speed at sprinting distances, but would hardly shine in racing at over a mile. In the list of thirty best money-winning three-year-olds there is so much real merit included that, unless there is an extraordinary series of accidents, our four-year-olds of this year must prove vastly superior to those of 1913. The thirty were the following:

NUMEROUS MONEY-WINNERS FOR J. O. TALBOTT

For a comparative new comer in racing J. O. Talbott was a fortunate owner in 1913 and had every reason to be pleased with his experience as an owner. He rapidly accumulated a big string of horses and a number of them proved good enough for membership in any man's stable. Lahore was the best moneywinner and a capital handicap horse when at his best, as he showed conclusively when he finished lapped on Whisk Broom II, in the latter's memorable feat of running a mile and a quarter in 2:00 in the Suburban Handicap. The two Whitney cast-offs, Tarts and Monocacy, raced in excellent form for bim and lesser lights that each contributed $1,000 or more to his stable returns were Republican, Colonel Cook, Delft, Bob R., Jawbone, Palanquin, Frank Hudson, Wooden Shoes, Feather Duster and Warbler. Many of the horses that raced in his colors passed into other ownerships from time to time and his stable record was as follows:

USEFUL MEMBERS OF A FAR WESTERN STABLE

D. Ford has attained no great eminence as a turfman and owner, but he has at least one source of satisfaction vouchsafed to few owners in that he is now the possessor of a horse that was until recently one of the joint holders of the American record at a mile. Vested Rights having covered that distance last Christmas Day in 1:37½ and tied the record previously held by Centre Shot and Manasseh. The fact that Vested Rights was only able to win seven races last year in forty-three attempts shows that he is nothing great as a race horse and his present distinction must be ascribed to the unrivalled speed of the Juarez race track instead of anything remarkable on his part as a race horse. Still, he was Ford's trump card as a money tarner and is entitled to full credit for what he has done. Of Ford's other horses, Sir Alvescot, John Louis, Tremargo and Redpath all won more than $1,000 and helped materially in achieving the following stable record:

TWO GOOD FILLIES SHOWN

JAMES BUTLER TAKES FIRST AND SECOND MONEY IN SENORITAS STAKES.

Climber, a Slashing Daughter of Voter and Stepping Stone, Is the Winner, and Gypsy, by Ben Brush-Runaway Girl, Is Second.

EI Paso, Tex., January 25.—A big throng attended the races at Juarez this afternoon. The running of the Senoritas Stakes, the first stake event for two-year-olds this year, was the particular attraction. It was for fillies, and the James Butler entry, Climber and Gypsy, were installed favorites on the strength of fast work that they have been snowing in morning trials. Jefferson Livingston sent two to the post—Blue Racer and Marie O'Brien—and they ruled second choices in the betting. The Butler entry ran first and second, while Blue Racer mished third. The winner is a slashing big brown daughter of Voter and Stepping Stone.

She did not actually get fully in her stride until opposite the paddock. At that point, four of the field were on equal terms, namely Silver Blossoin, Josefina Zarate, Blue Racer and Climber. Jockey Estep shook her up a trifle and she drew away to win handily. Gypsy, which was outrun, came with a powerful rush and outgamed Blue Racer in the last stride.

Jockey Hill was suspended for ten days by the stewards for making no apparent effort to leave the post on Rosemary and for taking the mare beek out of the race after the start. Starter Cassidy stated that Hill had plenty of room on the rail when the barrier went up.

Jockey G. W. Carroll was suspended for twenty days for rough riding on Christmas Eve, on which he kept zigzaagging in front of George all down the homestretch in the second race.

Jockey L. Gentry was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the barrier in the second race.

James Striker was buried here today. He died from an operation for the removal of a tumor. He was a brother of like Striker and his home was in Buffalo, N. Y.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. W. A. Cincinnati, O. Mentor, ch. c, by Blackstock—Meta, only started in two races. This was when he was a three-year-old, both at Lexington, Ky. In the first he ran fourth to Miami. Wintergreen and Dr. Barkley at a mile. In his second he won a purse at three-quarters of a mile. Do not know his present location. He was the property of L. A. Cella.

Surprising ready for this race, H. G. Bedwell has a couple of likely eligibles in Brave Cunarder and Bolter. The latter is a maiden by Voter—Red Light, that is highly thought of by his owner. Gordon is in the race and so is Addie M. The former has not been doing much training and Addie M. will not be hurried along until late in the spring. The firing irons were applied to Addie M.'s ankles not long ago and her legs have greatly improved in appearance. Charlestonian, a stable companion of Addie M.'s will probably go to the post in the Derby, and his victory would be a popular one as he is owned by J. W. Messervy, a local turfman. Ivan Gardner and Old Ben are both certain starters provided they continue to train well and both will have to be reckoned with.

HENRY McDANIEL AT THORNCLIFFE.

Toronto, Ont., January 25.—Henry McDaniel, who recently engaged to train the horses of Robert Davies, has entered upon his duties at Thorncliffe Farm, as Mr. Davies' establishment is called. The Davies string for 1914 will be made up of twenty one horses, including such well-known racers as Plate Glass, Calgary, Knights Differ, Southern Maid, The Usher and First Sight, There are only four two-year-olds in the stable. These are a brown filly by Golden Maxim—Belle of Oakley, a gray filly by Prince of Melbourne—Grey Agnes, a chestnut colt by Star Ruby—Majolica and a bay colt by Waterboy—Hamburg Belle. All four were purchased at the yearling sales of last summer in the United States. The Waterboy—Hamburg Belle colt was the highest priced of the loi, having cost Mr. Davies $4,000. He is of the big, growthy type and may need considerable time to develop. The Davies horses will remain here throughout the winter and will begin their campaign of 1914 with the opening of the Canadian racing season at the Ontario Jockey Club's Woodbine track May 23.
